Location

Kilkenny House is located at the junction of King Street and York Place at the heart of the professional core of the city centre.

The building is within a few minutes walk of Leeds city railway station together with the retail and leisure amenities afforded by Leeds city centre.

Easy access is provided to the Leeds inner ring road, M62/M621 motorways and the wider road network beyond.

Description

Kilkenny House is an attractive four storey office building and occupies a prominent corner position. Disabled access is provided on York Place to an entrance lobby with lift serving all floors. Part first and third floors are available although each floor offers differing styles of accommodation.

Accommodation

| | | m ² | (sq ft) |
|-------------|-------------|----------------|---------|
| Third Floor | King Street | 52.03 | (560) |
| Third Floor | York Place | 42.18 | (455) |

Total Net Internal Floor Area Up to 94.21 m² (1,015 sq ft)

The imaginative use of the roof space on the third floor has created unusual and attractive office accommodation which is split into a large meeting area and open plan offices.

The suite is lit by a mixture of spotlights and surface mounted fluorescent lighting. The walls are painted and the floor is carpet tiled.

Fully tiled ladies and gents toilets are provided on both floors.

The building has gas fired central heating and access via an entry phone system.
