Location

Dewsbury Valley View is positioned on the southern side of Lees Hall Road in Thornhill Lees, which is a predominantly residential area, only a short distance from Dewsbury town centre. Lees Hall Road is connected to the B6116 Slaithwaite Road which provides direct access to Savile Town and Dewsbury town centre.

Dewsbury Valley View is accessed immediately adjacent 61 Lees Hall Road (close to Elder Drive) and does benefit from a right of way between 29 and 31 Lees Hall Road (for the purpose of construction).

Dewsbury Valley View benefits from good road links to many arterial routes serving the North Kirklees area, and is within 5.5 miles of junction 40 of the M1 (to the north east of Ossett). Both Savile Town and Dewsbury town centre are within walking distance and the site is less than 4 miles from the affluent areas of Mirfield and Brierfield.

Description

Dewsbury Valley View comprises a cleared sloping and elevated site with planning approval for residential development. The site slopes from south to north and will provide infill development.

The immediate areas of Thornhill Lees, Thornhill and Savile Town are densely populated residential with a mix of terrace, townhouses and larger detached dwellings serving the local community (with extended families).

Total Site Area 0.57 ha (1.4 acres) or thereabouts
