Location

Franklyn Court is situated in a highly prominent position on the junction of Greaves House Terrace with the main A642 Wakefield Road in Lepton. Lepton is approximately 3.5 miles south east of Huddersfield town centre, and the A642 Wakefield Road provides excellent links between Huddersfield town centre and Junctions 38 and 39 of the M1 (located to the east).

Description

Franklyn Court comprises a modern single storey steel portal framed industrial building, incorporating internally built two storey offices, along with a single storey brick building, which has been refurbished and split to form a series of self contained workshop/storage units. Unit 2a has been re-roofed.

Unit 7 has been split to create a multi occupied office building.

Externally Franklyn Court benefits from a surfaced yard area to the front of both buildings providing good onsite loading, circulation space and vehicle parking.
