Location

The premises occupy a prominent town centre fringe position location with an extensive frontage to the A638 Bradford Road which links Junction 26 of M62 (Chain Bar) with the main A62 Leeds Road.

Cleckheaton is a town in the Metropolitan Borough of Kirklees with a population of approximately 15,000 accessible to the motorway network - neighbouring conurbations and main arterial routes accessing North Kirklees.

The premises are situated on the junction of Bradford Road with Valley Road.

Description

34 Bradford Road comprises a large ground floor showroom/display area accessed directly off Bradford Road with large display windows (benefitting from electrically operated shutters to the front).

The premises include rear office areas along with storage provisions accessed from the rear via an electrically operated roller shutter door.

The first floor of the property has previously provided overflow storage and/or additional offices (where applicable).
